CONDITIONS OF SALE

I. Rejection of bids: Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

II. The buyer: The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

III. Identification and deposit by buyer: The name of the buyer of each lot shall be given immediately on the sale thereof, and when so required, each buyer shall sign a card giving the lot number, amount for which sold, and his or her name and address.

A deposit at the actual time of the sale shall be made of all or such part of the purchase prices as may be required.

If the two foregoing conditions are not complied with, the lot or lots so purchased may at the option of the auctioneer be put up again and re-sold.

IV. Risk after purchase: Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchasers' risk, and neither the consignor nor the Association is responsible for the loss of, or any damage to any article by theft, fire, breakage, however occasioned, or any other cause whatsoever.

V. Delivery of purchases: Delivery of any purchases will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

VI. Receipted bills: Goods will only be delivered on presentation of a receipted bill. A receipted bill presented by any person will be recognized and honored as an order by the buyer, directing the delivery to the bearer of the goods described thereon. If a receipted bill is lost before delivery of the property has been taken, the buyer should immediately notify the Association of such loss.

VII. Storage in default of prompt payment and calling for goods: Articles not paid for in full and not called for by the purchaser or agent by noon of the day following that of the sale may be turned over by the Association to some cartier to be carried to and stored in some warehouse until the time of the delivery therefrom to the purchaser, and the cost of such cartage and storage and any other charges will be charged against the purchaser and the risk of loss or damage occasioned by such removal or storage will be upon the purchaser.

In any instance where the purchase bill has not been paid in full by noon of the day following that of the sale, the Association and the auctioneer reserve the right, any other stipulation in these conditions of sale notwithstanding, in respect to any or all lots included in the purchase bill, at its or his option, either to cancel the sale thereof or to re-sell the same at public or private sale without further notice for the account of the buyer and to hold the buyer responsible for any deficiency and all losses and expenses sustained in so doing.

VIII. Shipping: Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, but the Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

IX. Guaranty: The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly and endeavors therein and also at the actual time of sale to point out any error, defect or imperfection, but guaranty is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of any lot and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloging or imperfection not noted or pointed out. Every lot is sold "as is" and without recourse.

Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, and the Association will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued and in its judgment may thereafter sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby will become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without foundation.

X. Records: The records of the Auctioneer and the Association are in all cases to be considered final and the highest bid shall in all cases be accepted by both buyer and seller as the value against which all claims for losses or damage shall lie.

XI. Buying on order: Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph, or telephone, if conditions permit, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchases so made will be subject to the foregoing conditions of sale, except that, in the event of a purchase of a lot of one or more books by or for a purchaser who has not through himself or his agent been present at the exhibition or sale, the Association will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be refunded if the lot differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of arts, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit must be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced Catalogues: Priced copies of the catalogue, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at charges commensurate with the duties involved in copying the necessary information from the records of the Association.

These conditions of sale cannot be altered except by the auctioneer or by an officer of the Association.

FOR
UNITED STATES AND STATE TAX
INSURANCE AND OTHER PURPOSES
AND
CATALOGUES OF PRIVATE COLLECTIONS

APPRAISALS AND CATALOGUES. Together with the increase in its exhibition and sales rooms, the American Art Association, Inc., will expand its service of furnishing appraisements, under expert direction, of art and literary property, jewelry and all personal effects, in the settlement of estates, for inheritance tax, insurance and other purposes. It is prepared also to supplement this work by making catalogues of the contents of homes or of entire estates, such catalogues to be modelled after the finely and intelligently produced catalogues of the Association's own Sales.

The Association will furnish at request the names of many Trust and Insurance Companies, Executors, Administrators, Trustees, Attorneys and private individuals for whom the Association has made appraisements which have not only been entirely satisfactory to them, but have been accepted by the United States Revenue Department, State Comptroller and others in interest.

WILLIAM TROST RICHARDS

AMERICAN: 1833—1905

1—SUNRISE AT ATLANTIC CITY

(Water Color)

Height, 11 inches; length, 21 inches

RED-YELLOW sand at the extreme right edge of the foreground; the broad flat beach lined with the ripples of all but spent waves; white combers following them, from the left. Horizon clouds tinged with colors, as the sun rising in an auroral haze whitens the distant sea.

A. LETOR

CONTEMPORARY

2—EN PROMENADE

(Water Color)

17.58
Height, 19 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width, 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

AN informal path bordering an edge of a green wood in spring. A hazy sunny day. On the verdure of the pathside a blue parasol, opened, some light textiles of brilliant color, and near at hand a tall hat and a walking-stick.

F. HOPKINSON SMITH

AMERICAN: 1838—1915

3—VENICE

50.1
Height, 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length, 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

LOOKING across the Molo and the Piazzetta toward the Library and the Royal Palace, which appear under a robin's-egg sky displaying fleecy clouds. On the right the Ducal Palace, and in the foreground light green water, with a gondola just appearing under the Paglia bridge. Everywhere many modern people in many colors.

HENRY WARD RANGER, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1858—1916

4—IN HOLLAND

(Water Color)

65. — Height, 20 inches; length, 28½ inches

A WANDERING river or broad canal winds through a green grazing and agricultural country, its smooth surface bluish, gray and white with reflections of a confused sky. On it some laden and sluggish sailboats, with figures aboard. In a path paralleling the stream on the left, a man walking toward a distant hamlet.

Signed at the lower left, H. W. RANGER, '84.

LEO HERRMANN

FRENCH: 1838—1907

5—THE CHEF'S RELAXATION

(Panel)

125. — Height, 6 inches; width, 4 inches

IN the broad sandy path of a park, where a few stray leaves have fallen, a table from some neighboring restaurant has been set with white napery and a tray holding coffee, sugar and brandy. Beyond the path the green lawn contains a bed of flowers, in the sun before dark green woodland. At the end of the table a smiling chef all in white, who faces the observer, sprawls comfortably in his chair after his refreshment, and beams with joy as he reads his favorite Figaro.

Signed at the lower right, LEO HERRMANN.

JULES ADOLPHE GRISON

FRENCH: 1845—

6—READING

(Panel)

45.—

Height, 4 inches; width, 3 inches

FULL-LENGTH portrait of a gentleman seated in a high-backed arm-chair in the corner of a room, smoking a long-stemmed clay pipe and reading, an open window at his left giving upon a green garden. He faces the observer and slightly toward the right, and his rich costume includes an olive waistcoat and white jabot, crimson coat and orange breeches.

Signed at the lower left, GRISON.

JULES JACQUES VEYRASSAT

FRENCH: 1828—1893

7—HARVESTING

90.—

Height, 3½ inches; length, 6½ inches

Two hay wagons, each drawn by a black and white horse, are standing near a half-finished hayrick, both of them partly hidden by the mass of hay. Peasant women on the rick are busy tramping down the hay which is pitched upon the pile from the loads. In the distance is a pleasant sunlit landscape, with low hills at the horizon.

Signed at the lower right, J. VEYRASSAT.

From the H. Wood Sullivan Collection, April 3, 1903.

CHARLES ÉMILE JACQUE

FRENCH: 1813—1894

8—SHEEPFOLD

(Panel)

145.— Height, 4½ inches; length, 5½ inches

IN a faintly shadowed corner of a sheepeote two gray sheep are standing, turned slightly toward the left and with backs to the spectator, feeding at a rack. A soft light slanting in from above glints from glossy surfaces of their fleece, and gives a greenish-golden note to the straw on the floor, where a white hen is pecking.

Signed at the lower left, CH. JACQUE.

From the William Schaus Sale, New York, 1898.

From the James B. Haggin Collection, April 4, 1917.

DAVID JOHNSON, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1827—1908

9—ON THE DELAWARE, AT HANCOCK

(Board)

115.— Height, 4¾ inches; length, 6½ inches

PARALLELING the river, which reaches from foreground to distance on the left, an informal road runs between lines of trees on the right, the trees in silhouette against a light sky. Cows stand in the shallow water near the grassy shore line. In the distance on the far side of the stream, houses and a hill.

Signed at the lower right, DJ (monogram), and again on the back with title.

ÉTIENNE PROSPER BERNE-BELLECOUR

FRENCH: 1838—1910

10—SOLDIERS AND VILLAGE

(Panel)

130.-

Height, $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches

THREE French buglers in their blue and red uniform are portrayed in a sunny and grassy foreground, two of them standing, one seated on the side of a hill at the left. In a valley in the middle distance the numerous houses of a village or town, with green woods turning brown in the distance beyond them.

C. HOGUET

NINETEENTH CENTURY

11—PACKING VEGETABLES

(Panel)

45.-

Height, $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length, $7\frac{1}{4}$ inches

FRESH vegetables in variety strew the floor of a basement or cellar room to which a broad light penetrates. A far window looks dimly upon a green outdoors. Under the heavily beamed ceiling and beside the entrance to a stairway a peasant woman in red and blue and white is placing the vegetables in large market baskets and covering them.

EUGÈNE JOSEPH VERBOECKHOVEN

BELGIAN: 1799—1881

12—SHEEP AND CHICKENS

(Panel)

100.—

Height, 6½ inches; length, 8 inches

LYING on the thick and warm-hued straw in a sheepcote are seen a white ewe and her lamb, the ewe facing the left with head up, the lamb curled at her feet. At one side a gray and white hen gathers her brood. Both groups in sunshine.

Signed vertically on the beam at the right, EUGÈNE VERBOECKHOVEN.

WILHELM VELTEN

GERMAN: 1847—

13—THE HUNTERS' HALT

80.—

(Panel)

Height, 6¼ inches; length, 9¼ inches

AN inn among its vines, on the right, opens upon a yard, at the left of which are related buildings, and through a gateway is seen an allée of green trees. At the inn porch mine host and a maid are serving wine to a finely clad man who has dismounted from his white hunter, while a companion still seated on his dark chestnut mount is lighting his pipe.

Signed at the lower right, W. VELTEN, MÜNCHEN.

C. HOGUET

NINETEENTH CENTURY

14—AT THE FIREPLACE

30.-

(Panel)

Height, $6\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches

SEATED on a low stool before a gray fireplace a peasant woman in red, wearing a green apron and a white cap, bends over cooking-kettles, raising the lid of one while she holds in her other hand the knife with which she is cutting vegetables for further culinary operations. Beside her, a comfortably seated cat. On the mantel shelf various jars and utensils.

ADOLPH SCHREYER

GERMAN: 1828—1899

15—WALLACHIAN POST STATION

1/50.-

(Panel)

Height, $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width, $6\frac{1}{4}$ inches

THE corner of a rude but firmly built rustic cabin with thatch roof projects from the right, receding to a fence which encloses its doorway. Snow clings to the roof, and covering the ground blows toward the foot of a single, solid wooden door which is closed. A lone horseman, swarthy of hue and heavily clad, mounted on a short sorrel stallion, has ridden to the door and raps on it with the butt of his whip.

Signed at the lower right, AD. SCHREYER.

From the William Schaus Collection.

From the Mary J. Morgan Collection, New York, 1866; No. 60.

From the Mrs. E. W. Bass Collection, New York.

(Illustrated)

James Wilson
ENGLISH SCHOOL

1769-1859

16—LANDSCAPE WITH COTTAGES

100.— Height, $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches; length, 14 inches

A COTTAGE at right, with trees and wild-growing bushes; in the middle distance another cottage at left, under a blue sky filled with white clouds. In front of the former cottage, in the sunshine, a little girl in blue skirt and white cap is seated on the ground, and a country woman in orange waist and crimson skirt approaches, carrying a bucket.

F. NARCHETTI

ITALIAN: CONTEMPORARY

17—ROMEO AND JULIET SERENADE

(Panel)

310.— Height, $11\frac{3}{4}$ inches; length, 16 inches

ON a balcony of a Venetian palace flanked by its garden of flowers and trees a fair young lady with flowing Titian tresses and wearing an emerald gown appears, and reaches down for a bouquet handed up toward her by a man in blue and green, while a young man in brown and crimson plays a lute, looks up and sings, both men in a gondola brought to a halt by a gaily dressed gondolier.

Signed at the lower right, F. NARCHETTI, 1885.

ANTONIO CASANOVA Y ESTORACH

SPANISH: 1847—1896

18—THE YAWN

Height, 9½ inches; width, 6¾ inches

FACING the spectator and with his chair tilted back against the wall a self-complacent gentleman in silver-gray silk, gray stockings and brown leather shoes rests his head against his hands which are clasped at the back of it, and indulges in a prolonged yawn. He wears a gray hat and a rose-hued sash, and his sword and pipe are at his side.

Signed at the lower right, A. CASANOVA, ROMA, 1872.

LEO HERRMANN

FRENCH: 1838—1907

19—THE CARDINAL'S REFRESHMENT

Height, 10 inches; width, 7 inches

FULL length figure of a gray-haired cardinal in flowing robes and skull-cap, seated in a high-backed chair upholstered in dark crimson, partaking of a hot beverage from a white coffee cup, the remainder of his refreshment service at hand on a table with a green covering. He is in profile to the right. Floor covering a brilliant Oriental rug; background dark.

Signed at the upper right, LEO HERRMANN.

From the William Schaus Sale.

From the H. S. Waite Collection, April 24, 1919.

A. GUÉS

FRENCH

20—STANDARD BEARER

(Panel)

90.—
Height, 8 inches; width, 6 inches

A MIDDLE-AGED man with a full reddish beard is sitting on a stool before a carved door with long strap hinges. He leans forward with right elbow resting on knee and in his left hand holds the folds and staff of a white and blue standard. He is dressed in gray and orange with bright yellow stockings.

Signed at the lower left, A. Gués.

From the Simcon J. Drake Collection, March 24, 1915.

J. BEAUFAIN IRVING, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1826—1877

21—ON WATCH

(Panel)

45.—
Height, 9 inches; width, 7 inches

IN the crypt or cloisters of a churchly edifice which has been battered by wars or time a cavalier in rich seventeenth century dress has taken refuge, with a faithful follower in helmet and cuirass. They stand facing an archway at the left, alert on the defensive, the cavalier with sword drawn and one hand on the shoulder of his friend and defender, who has leveled his musket.

Signed at the lower right, J. BEAUFAIN IRVING, N.A.

From the William Schaus Collection.

JEHAN GEORGES VIBERT

FRENCH: 1840—1902

22—THE SENTINEL

60. — Height, $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width, 9 inches

At a small doorway of castle or fortress a solitary man is seen on guard, at the foot of a winding flight of stone steps. He is in brown garb with red stockings and wears a steel helmet, and is armed with battle-axe and sword.

Signed at the lower right, J. G. VIBERT, '69.

From the John W. Sterling Collection, January 17, 1919.

CARL KRONBERGER

AUSTRIAN: 1847—

23—HAPPINESS IN STUDY

85. — (Panel)

Height, 9 inches; width, $6\frac{3}{4}$ inches

THREE-QUARTERS length portrait of an aged monk in black habit and skull cap, seated and facing the right at a table on which a huge parchment volume is open, and with arms resting on it he reads with such pleasure that his wrinkled face is beaming with delight.

ERSKINE NICOL, R.S.A., A.R.A.

ENGLISH: 1825—1904

24—HAPPY IN HIS OWN MUSIC

25. — Height, 13½ inches; width, 11 inches

A FLORID and husky oldster in a green coat and brown waistcoat and trousers sits beside a plain wooden table, on which his hat and glass rest, and looking with gay and complacent good humor at the observer, proceeds to play to his own satisfaction on his own guitar.

Signed at the upper left, E. N.

From the John W. Sterling Collection, January 17, 1919.

A. BONNEMAISON

25—ON THE SHORE

50.—

Height, 10½ inches; length, 13½ inches

On the left of the sandy foreground are two fish baskets. A third lies near the centre, behind which sits a woman in white cap and apron, while at her back stands another. In the distance near the water's edge appear six more figures, and to the right of them a man on horseback. Two sails dot the whitish sea, which catches the light from a pale greenish sky overspread with layers of white cloud.

Signed at the right, A. BONNEMAISON.

From the Mrs. S. B. Conklin Collection, February 9, 1905.

ALBERTO PASINI

ITALIAN: 1826—1899

26—EN GRAND CORTÈGE

110.—

(Panel)

Height, 10¾ inches; width, 8¼ inches

Coming down a defile in a rough country, and emerging from shadow into brilliant sunlight, a Bedouin escort leads and accompanies two personages traveling in state and dimly perceived in the depths of a scarlet and green howdah borne by a haughty camel. The escort ride proud and prancing horses and are garbed in rich colors.

Signed at the lower right, A. PASINI, 1866.

JULES WORMS

FRENCH: 1832—1881

27—S'IL VOUS PLAÎT!

(Panel)

Height, 14 inches; width, 10½ inches

AN interior with two figures—a bewiskered man in blue breeches and red stockings, mustard jacket trimmed with red and a white waistcoat, on the left, with feet apart and hands spread in front of him palm upward, apparently either pleading for cash due or indicating an inability to go on otherwise; and a tall man in domino and high conical cap with astronomical figures on it, who poses thoughtfully in helpless attitude with arms folded and downward gaze. Entertainment poster on wall.

Signed at the lower right, J. WORMS.

ÉTIENNE PROSPER BERNE-BELLECOUR

FRENCH: 1838—1910

28—SCALING A WALL

(Panel)

Height, 17¾ inches; width, 12½ inches

IN brilliant sunshine under a turquoise sky the corner of a creamy, plastered brick wall, with a globe atop the coping and an abutment reinforcing the angle, is depicted close in the foreground, a patch of green grass in front of it. Here are two blue uniformed Frenchmen, one astride the wall on his way over and the other reaching up to him his musket.

Signed at the lower left, E. BERNE-BELLECOUR.

CHARLES LEICKERT

BELGIAN: 1817—

29—FISHERMEN'S HOMES

115.—

Height, 18 inches; length, 24 inches

ENTERING into view from the right, grass-grown dunes descending to the broad flat beach of a stretch of the Dutch or Belgian coast, with the tide out and the sea and various vessels visible at the left. Heavy fishing boats with sails lie on the sands or in the shallows, and figures are seen along the beach. In the foreground, on the dunes, brick and tile cottages of a fishing hamlet stand out in the sunlight, and about them are men, women and children, to the number of a score or more.

Signed at the lower left, CH. LEICKERT, F. '59.

LEON VICTOR DUPRÉ

FRENCH: 1816—1879

30—LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURES

180.—

Height, 11¼ inches; length, 18¾ inches

FAR-FLUNG fields, level or lightly rolling, and given to to grass or cultivation, stretch away to blue hills under a brilliant sky. In a sunny pasture of the foreground, red cows and white ones and a black one stand lazily or are lying down, and a woman standing converses with a farmer seated on the grass.

Signed at the lower right, VICTOR DUPRÉ, 1856.

ANDREAS SCHELFHOUT

DUTCH: 1787—1870

31—WINTER IN HOLLAND

90.-

(Panel)

Height, 9½ inches; length, 13 inches

A BROAD and frozen river curls forward from the distance, between a wooded point on the left and a lower point on the right, the latter supporting a low gray cottage with a high gable roof of red tile. Backwaters of the stream appear in the foreground, and brown rushes in and about them project above their blue and gray-white ice covering. On the ice both nearby and far away are heavy Dutch figures, skating. In the background a populous town.

On back (written): "A. Schelfhout, The Hague, 1857."

THÉOPHILE EMMANUEL DUVERGER

FRENCH: 1821—

32—FEEDING THE PET BIRD

65.-

(Panel)

Height, 12¾ inches; width, 9¼ inches

Two girls are pictured in a cottage room having varied utensils hanging on the walls, and a floor of red tile. One facing the spectator is partially seated on a table on which rests a bird cage, and she holds in one hand a pet bird, to which she is feeding berries from a bowl held by a smaller girl who faces her and is seen in profile. They wear home apparel of varied colors and appear in a soft light from a window at the left.

Signed at the lower left, DUVERGER.

Exhibited at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, 1858, No. 203, by James Harrison, Jr.

NARCISSE BERCHÈRE

FRENCH: 1822—1891

33—THE OLD WHITE HORSE

(Panel)

Height, 9 inches; length, 9½ inches

PASTURES and other fields extend on the right to a distant hamlet whose church appears on the horizon. At left in middle distance the land rises to a bunch of trees standing before the corner of a farm building. In the foreground at a bar, or rail gate, and in the sunshine stand an old but sturdy white horse and a black and brownish goat. The horse, a fine old animal, faces the left and is carefully and expressively studied, and the lights on its coat, engaging in quality, are sympathetically treated.

LÉON AUGUSTIN LHERMITTE

FRENCH: 1844—

34—IN THE ORCHARD

Height, 10½ inches; length, 13¾ inches

On the right a farm woman in gray waist and blue apron stands on the brown earth of a cultivated field, sickle in hand, beside an orchard just beyond which is a green field of partly cut hay. Some of the orchard trees are in blossom, cottages are seen along the foot of a hill and a church stands on top of it, and the sunshine shines under a hazy spring sky.

Signed at the lower left, L. LHERMITTE.

THEOPHILE EMMANUEL DUVERGER

FRENCH: 1821—

35—WOE IN THE STABLE

(Panel)

Height, 13½ inches; width, 10½ inches

A VERY small girl in a blue frock and white cap has come to grief and lies prone and crying on the straw-strewn floor of a farm stable, and an older boy stands looking down at her while he holds a wholly unconcerned white nannygoat. On a table and in a food trough at the rear, under a feed rack, lie pumpkin and other vegetables.

Signed at the lower left, DUVERGER.

FREDERICK JOHANN VOLTZ

GERMAN: 1817—1886

36—AT THE FARM

(Panel)

Height, 9½ inches; length, 15½ inches

ON green grass in the foreground a black cow is standing and a white-faced reu cow and a goat are lying down, in the sun, against a fence over which a pollarded tree leans; beyond the fence a building with a tile and thatch roof. At left in the background a stream where ducks swim and cows drink, a maid on a footbridge watching them, and a comfortable farmhouse.

Signed at the lower right, FR. VOLTZ, '85.

JOHN GEORGE BROWN, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1831—1913

37—PROUD OF HIS BICEPS

200. —

Height, 18 inches; width, 12 inches

FULL-LENGTH portrait of one of the artist's favorite bootblacks of of nineteenth century New York, seated and facing the left, three-quarters front. He is sitting on his upturned "Shine" box, and brushes and shoe polish lie in front of him. Smilingly he raises his shirt sleeve and shows how his work develops his muscle.

Signed at the lower left, J. G. BROWN, N.A.

BENJAMIN EUGÈNE FICHEL

FRENCH: 1826—1895

38—GAMING AT THE INN

(Panel)

250. —

Height, 14¾ inches; length, 21¾ inches

WITHIN the spacious room of an inn which shows a large fireplace a dozen gentlemen are portrayed, most of them seated at table, playing games, their swords in evidence beside them. They are in crimson and emerald velvet, and other colors, and wear gorgets and white collars, small clothes and sandals.

Signed at the lower left, E. FICHEL, 1886.

71—TOILERS RESTING

507.—

Height, 21½ inches; length, 29¾ inches

In a rough and broken countryside of grass and stones and a scattering of young trees—the purlieus or extremity, perhaps, of a cleared forest—two of the older trees survive at the centre of the foreground, one partly blasted but sending forth leaves in its age. Its neighbor, short and sturdy, meets its limbs with more foliage, green and also showing autumn hues. Here in the shade three men have gathered for a brief rest, one of them standing. Each has his two-wheeled cart and tandem team of gray or white and brown horses, and these stand some in sunshine and others in the shade, at right or left or between the trees.

FRENCH: 1836—1907

85—A MADONNA OF THE TUBS

30. — Height, 32 inches; width, $25\frac{1}{2}$ inches

Interior of a French farm cottage, with an enormous fireplace within which a large brass kettle is steaming over glowing embers. Suspended from the ceiling, nearby, a ham. In bright daylight in front of the fireplace a young woman of blond type, leaning over a tub filled with linen. She is seen in profile to left, in a white underwaist and black skirt, with rolled up blue apron, her bare feet in sabots.

Signed at the lower right, LÉON CAILLE.

WILLY MARTENS

DUTCH: 1856—

86—PEASANT WOMEN WORKING AT HOME

320.— Height, $33\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width, $28\frac{1}{2}$ inches

A VISTA of comfortable cottages, receding in irregular line toward the left, and glimpses of gray-blue and creamy-white sky over their tiled and gabled roofs. In a court beside the nearest cottage, and before its huge exterior chimney, two women of the peasantry are at their work, the younger standing and observed profil perdu as she faces an aged grandmother who is seated on a bench, facing the observer. The younger is in a blue striped dress, the elder wears a gray waist, dark skirt and shawl, and both wear white caps. The younger is knitting, the elder bends over her work on some white material that lies over her lap.

Signed at the lower right, WILLY MARTENS.

FREDERICK JOHANN VOLTZ

GERMAN: 1817—1886

87—CATTLE IN A WOOD

590. Height, $34\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width, $30\frac{1}{2}$ inches

At the edge of a wood a reddish and creamy-white cow with black neck and head stands beside a brooklet in the foreground, her head stretched to the left over the back of her calf which looks wistfully toward the observer. Another cow lies down beyond her. Sunshine illumines the varied coats of the animals and the abundant greenery at the left of the group, and the grass at their feet. High above them a boy and his dog sit on a bank, partly in the shadow of an aged tree whose branches arch the picture.

Signed at the lower right, FR. VOLTZ.

FÉLIX ZIEM

FRENCH: 1821—1911

88—CONSTANTINOPLE

90v.—

Height, 21½ inches; length, 33¾ inches

IN a foreground of turquoise water, many-oared barges and a single sailing vessel, with other craft in the definite distance, under a sky which at the zenith is a paler turquoise than the water, and which above the horizon glows with a soft golden-yellow sunset light. At right, in mist or haze, the great mosque of Suleiman with its tall minarets, and sundry buildings of the city of the Golden Horn.

Signed at lower left, ZIEM.

From the R. H. White Collection of Boston, February 25, 1920.

BERNARDUS JOHANNES BLOMMERS

DUTCH: 1845—1914

89—THE LANDING OF THE CATCH

1400. —

Height, 30 inches; length, 49¾ inches

SPENT waves of a receding tide, at the left, along a broad and flat sandy beach of the Low Countries, with the line of the sea and shore swinging irregularly toward the right in the distance, under a sky of gray vapor, whose lower banks are drifting over the land. Nearer by, the sky is bluish and white over sloop-rigged heavy fishing boats which have come to rest in the offing, amid shallow wavelets. Men are still at work on them, and the whole land community of able-bodied women, young and old, have come down to the beach to help in their unloading. Fish are being brought ashore in baskets, carried up the beach, and spread out upon the beach before pleased and busy women of the plodding and cheery fisherfolk, a group of them close in the foreground and numbers more in the distance.

Signed at the lower right, B. J. BLOMMERS.

MARTIN RICO

SPANISH: 1850—1908

90—THE LOREDAN GARDEN, VENICE

420.—

A CHARACTERISTIC example of Rico, the composition showing a garden wall extending across the canvas from left to right, above which appears the foliage of trees and bushes in the gardens beyond. The sea water in the foreground laps the wall, except at a place on the left where there is a little space of land. Here a doorway gives access to the garden. Over all, a summer sky of blue with some white clouds at the horizon.

Signed on wall at right.

From the James V. Parker Collection, 1917.

DAVID FARQUHARSON, A.R.A.

ENGLISH: 1839—1907

91—GREEN VALLEY AND
SNOW CAPPED MOUNTAINS

140. — Height, 22 inches; length, 36 inches

At left uneven green fields bordering a river, with a flock of sheep attended by a shepherd and shepherdess moving slowly away from the observer. At right a steep green bank, on the opposite side of the stream, in the foreground, the bank in the middleground being heavily wooded along the water's edge, while above the treetops the bank becomes a hillside rising to mountain peaks white with snow under a gray sky.

Signed at the lower left, D. FARQUHARSON.

FRANCESCO PAOLO MICHETTI

ITALIAN: 1852—

92—SHEEP IN A RAVINE

250. — Height, 21 inches; length, 31¼ inches

A SUNLIT ravine in a wood, a wood green with the richness and luxuriance of a semi-tropical climate, descends toward the spectator between green banks topped by dense tree growths and brightened on their flanks by thriving wildflowers. Arching the ravine in the foreground is a fallen tree, meeting the bent trunk of another on the farther side. Coming down the ravine toward the spectator, a troop of sheep, brown, black and white, the sunshine slanting across their abundant coats.

Signed at the lower right, MICHETTI, '71.

WILLIAM SHAYER, SENIOR

ENGLISH: 1788—1879

93—LANDSCAPE AND CATTLE, WITH FIGURES

90.—

Height, 28 inches; length, 36 inches

At left and right trees and rocks, and in the distance a range of bold hills seamed with valleys, the hill crests bleak, the valleys wooded, the hillsides clad with grass. Emerging from woods in the middle distance a river which fertilizes a foreground valley where cows graze in the sunshine. Here two girls attend the cattle and a man approaches on horseback.

Signed at the lower left, WM. SHAYER, SENR.

WILLIAM SHAYER, SENIOR

ENGLISH: 1788—1879

94—HARVEST HAPPINESS

90.—

Height, 28 inches; length, 36 inches

FIELDS gently sloping from either side toward the centre of a broad and far-reaching landscape are bathed in the sunshine of a fair summer day, and are green and yellow as they show the standing and the harvested grain. In a shaded hollow of the foreground a young mother seated on the grass, with golden sheaves about her, holds an infant on her lap who is pleased with an apple. A refreshment basket is beside her, and a smiling English maiden who looks toward the spectator and a younger girl and boy share in the joy of a harvest picnic. In the distance, the laboring harvesters are busy cutting and loading.

AUGUST FREDERIC ALBRECHT SCHENCK

DUTCH: 1828—1900

95—SHEEP IN A WINTER STORM

230. —

Height, 22 inches; length, 31½ inches

STRUGGLING up a hillside toward the left and the background, a flock of sheep are making their way through deep snow ahead of the wind in a driving storm. Clinging snow whitens their thick brown fleece. Two lambs bleat for shelter beside the nearest ewe. Shepherd and dog make the fight along with the flock, and the sky is dark with the storm clouds.

Signed at the lower right, SCHENCK.

FREDERICK JOHANN VOLTZ

GERMAN: 1817—1886

96—LANDSCAPE AND CATTLE

H. J. V. — Height, $15\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length, $36\frac{1}{2}$ inches

A HERD of cows and a bull calf beside a stream and scattered among the trees of a greenwood and the tall grass along the shores. Under a spreading tree, at right, sits a cowherd.

Signed at lower right, FR. VOLTZ, 1874.

From the Governor Oliver Ames Collection, January 16, 1919.

A. LOUSTOUNAU

97—BEFORE MARRIAGE

170.— Height, 24½ inches; length, 36¼ inches

THIS is the interior of a military office or bureau, sumptuously furnished with heavy and ornate Empire articles of use and ornament. Seated at a desk is an officer in full uniform, kepi on head, writing on a slip of paper and at the same time gazing rather sternly at a young lady in riding costume, who stands in front with her back turned toward the spectator. She rests her riding whip with a vigorous action in a leaf of the desk, where a subaltern in red and blue uniform is busily writing a long document.

Signed at the right, A. LOUSTOUNAU.

From the H. V. Newcomb Collection, March 12, 1903.

JOHANNES HUBERTUS LEONARDUS DE HAAS

BELGIAN: 1830—1880

98—LANDSCAPE AND CATTLE

150.— Height, 27 inches; length, 42½ inches

BLACK and white and red and white cattle are seen in flat green meadows of the Low Countries, in sunshine under a light and varied sky. In the immediate foreground a young bull standing athwart the picture, headed to right, and near him cows and calves standing or lying down, drinking at a pond or feeding in the tall grass at its edges. Beyond the pond, in middle distance at right, a group of pollarded trees in flourishing mid-summer foliage.

Signed at the lower right, J. H. L. DE HAAS.

JAMES McDOUGAL HART, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1828—1901

99—CATTLE IN A SUMMER LANDSCAPE

208. ✓

Height, 26 inches; length, 46 inches

A DOZEN or more of a herd of cows, red and tawny, and spotted with white on head or body, appear in a sunny meadow on a slightly hazy somnolent summer day. A white-faced cow lying down turns her head toward the spectator, near the centre of the foreground, and the others rest or graze about her or drink at a middleground pond. At right of the water, trees motionless in the breezeless air, and in the distance toward the left, beyond the meadows, farmhouses partly surrounded by trees.

Signed at the lower left, JAMES M. HART.

LÉON RICHEL

FRENCH: 1847—1907

100—LANDSCAPE WITH FIGURE

220.-

Height, 29 inches; length, 36½ inches

FIELDS of wild land, with green grass and darker green brush, and occasional gray rocks and blossoming field plants, enclose a silvery foreground pond whose surface mirrors the blue-white of a clouded sky and the shadows cast by neighboring trees. A line of trees in summer foliage, to right of centre, leads to a wooded valley in the background bounded by distant hills. In the sunshine to left of the trees a peasant woman in blue and red and white walks toward the wooded valley.

Signed at the lower right, LÉON RICHEL.

ANTON BRAITH

GERMAN: 1836—1905

101—RETURNING HOME—COWS

AND THEIR YOUTHFUL COWHERD

475.-

Height, 29 inches; length, 45 inches

THE westerling sun, unseen, is low at the left and sends horizontal rays across a rugged landscape of green and browning knolls, displaying their crests and westerly flanks in a soft luminosity, in the middle distance, while distant hills and a foreground pond lie in relative shadow. Winding over the leas, more or less in single line, comes a herd of cattle, their red and fulvous coats glowing softly in the waning light. On one a cheerful small boy in green breeches is mounted, and he waves aloft a whip as he faces the spectator. The leaders of the herd are already drinking at the pond. At right some sheep.

Signed at the lower left, A. BRAITH, MÜNCHEN, '67.

On stretcher two manuscript pasters, one signed by the artist certifying that he sold the painting to Henry Wimmer, in October, 1867, the other signed by Wimmer certifying that he sold the painting to Mr. E. D. Morgan of New York, five days later in the same month.

ITALIAN: CONTEMPORARY

102—THE ITALIAN FISHERMAN'S HOME

360.-

Height, 29¾ inches; length, 42¼ inches

THE observer looks upon the stone-paved and semi-outdoor kitchen and living-room of a plastered cottage with beamed ceiling, light entering from the right. Near the right a young and prolific mother, seated on a bench and facing the left, feeds herself and children from a bowl of spaghetti, a boy on the floor feeds the cat, and a small girl far at left is blowing the embers within a huge arched fireplace. Against the wall a fisherman's pole-net and great basket.

Signed on wall at lower right, CHIERICI GAETANA, 1878.

LUDWIG MUNTHE

GERMAN: 1841—1896

103—WINTER LOGGING

380.— Height, 31 inches; length, 50½ inches

Snow covers the ground, and weighs upon stumps and brush at either side of a road that winds along the edge of a wood, and upon evergreens at the left. In the foreground the atmosphere is clear, but soon becomes hazy—at the left only dimly obscurant, and at the right thickening to a smoky hue over darkening depths of the wood. In the central middle distance, at the curve of the road, stands a tandem team of brown horses, attached to a sledge and headed toward the spectator, their driver busy stacking on his sledge logs from a high snow-covered pile beside him.
